WHY COLUMBIA?

PERFORMANCE IS JOB #1

Columbia make the longest lasting, highest quality drywall tools out there, hands down. They know what your days are like — the founder, Bernie St. James, was a drywaller for years, running his own business and managing jobs to make sure they stayed profitable. He wasn't satisfied with the drywall tools he was using, so he decided to make his own, focusing on craftsmanship and performance. Columbia tools are created from real-world experience and a passion for good old-fashioned hard work. Columbia Tools are drywall tools that work as hard as you do.

MADE PROUDLY IN NORTH AMERICA

Columbia offer commercial grade tools. Every Columbia product is manufactured from scratch in North America with the highest quality North American steel, rubber, plastic and aluminum. Cheap production can't stand up to the beating tools can take on the job site, which is why they believe so strongly in building their own tools from the ground up to ensure durability and quality. Seriously, your Columbia tool will last so long, it might just become a family heirloom.
